Good afternoon,

Title One teachers will be sharing intervention materials weekly with families during the school closure. Instructors will also be available via email to answer questions, provide explanations for activities and make additional recommendations for remediation. Instructors will be electronically available via email during the school day that your student received services. For example if your child had intervention on Tuesday and Thursdays from 10:30-11:00. Please expect email response to any questions on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Full time title one instructors will be available during the school week electronically via email Monday through Friday. If you have any questions please contact your student's title one instructor!

We, as always will be working to support your child's educational needs.

God bless,

Kristyn Joy
